Covid Rules will be as per Victorian as of 15 December 2021

People no longer need to show proof of their vaccination status at all open premises venues including hospitality and entertainment premises.

The mandatory vaccination requirement is removed for all customers in retail (except hair and beauty services), real estate, places of worship, weddings and funerals.

Workplaces exposed to a positive coronavirus case no longer need to be deep cleaned. Employers must put in place appropriate control and/or risk management measures to reduce the risk of spreading COVID-19 at the work premises.

QR Check In will still be required for this trial
